LR 250

engrossed LB 216 and find the same correctly engrossed, 226, 300, 403, 403A, 507, 510, 540, and 719 all correctly engrossed, all signed by Senator Rod Johnson as Chair.

Mr. President, a new resolution, LR 250 (Read introducers.) It would call for a study of present procedures for collection of delinquent property taxes contained in Chapter 77, articles 18 and 19. That will be referred to the Executive Board, Mr. President. (See pages 557-558 of the Legislative Journal.) That is all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: If I could have your attention please, I would like to introduce a couple of guests this morning. Under the South balcony, Senator Harry Chronister has a guest, Mr. Paul Rupprecht, who is the Mayor of Schuyler, Nebraska. Will you please stand and be recognized by your Legislature. Thank you, Mayor. Senator Goll has a guest under the North balcony. It is Mr. Ed Elliott of Wayne, Nebraska and he is the President of Wayne State College. Would you please welcome him to the Legislature. Thank you, Dr. Elliott. We will move on to a couple of priority bills, LB 568.

CLERK: Mr. President, 568 offered by the Education Committee. (Read title.) The bill was read on January 19 last year. It was referred to the Education Committee for hearing. The bill was advanced to General File, Mr. President. I have no amendments to the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vickers, just a moment. (Gavel.) We seem to be a little noisy this morning. In respect to Senator Vickers, kindly hold it down a little.

SENATOR VICKERS: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President and members, LB 568 is a priority bill from the Education Committee last year. It, quite frankly, wasn't brought up last year because of the fact that it did have an A bill with it and we all know the problems last year with bills with A bills. But the situation is a little bit different this year as we all know so the decision was made to go ahead and discuss this bill, and I will have to tell you that I think that this is the first of a series of bills or
